

Anti-company policy

Policy on exclusion of antisocial forces and groups

We are aware of our corporate social responsibility and promote efforts to completely block relationships with antisocial forces in order to ensure sustainable development. In addition to striving to ensure its effectiveness, the following basic policy shall be established and observed.

1. Response as an organization

We will firmly confront antisocial forces by taking a resolute response as an organization.

2. Block all relationships including transactions

We have no business with antisocial forces. If it turns out that the person who is already trading is an antisocial force, we will promptly take appropriate measures to resolve the transaction.

3. Cooperation with external specialized agencies

In order to prevent damage caused by antisocial forces, we will cooperate with external specialized agencies such as police and attorneys to respond systematically and appropriately.

4. Civil and criminal legal response in an emergency

The Company will not respond to any unreasonable demands from antisocial forces and will take resolute legal action.

5. Prohibition of back-door transactions and funding

The Company will never provide funding or back door transactions to antisocial forces for any reason.

6. Prevent troubles

We will endeavor to prevent troubles by ensuring that each and every employee prevents scandals and complies with relevant laws and regulations.
